ATTENTION 3Ls $200 PMBR REBATE

PMBR has determined that it cannot enter into a special contract with St. Mary's before summer 2003. Therefore, the usual rates will apply, but St. Mary's will, as announced earlier, rebate $200 to any graduate taking the Texas Bar Examination for the first time in July 2003 who registers for the combined 6-day and 3-day workshops.

If you did not lock in an earlier rate, the cost is $790 (ABA/LSD members) or $890 (Non-ABA/LSD members) for the combined workshops. The rebate works this way: PMBR periodically submits to the law school a list of students who have paid for the combined workshops. If you are on the list, the law school will then credit your student account with $200.

TRANSIENT GRADES

Effective June 1, 2003, the following language replaces Section IV-J on page 27 of the current Student Handbook:

J. Transient Grades

Grades earned at other law schools while a student is in transient status are not used in calculating the student's cumulative grade-point average. A transient-status course is listed on the student's transcript with a grade of "CR" (credit) assuming the grade was a passing one. Credit hours earned in transient-status courses count toward the 90-credit-hour requirement for graduation, but do not count against the limit on "ungraded elective credit hours" (that is, the pass/fail hours limitation), if the student received a letter grade or a numerical grade (rather than a generic "pass") in the transient-status course.

THE SCHOLAR: ST. MARY'S LAW REVIEW ON MINORITY ISSUES

The Scholar: St. Mary's Law Review on Minority Issues will be holding various recruitment sessions in the coming weeks. Look for information in student mailboxes, announcements in classrooms, and an informational meeting to follow. Applications will be available as early as March 14, though the recruitment process will continue after spring break.

Membership on a law review is an excellent teaching avenue for sharpening legal research and writing skills. Employers place a high premium on law review membership, and it is sometimes a threshold question for employment.

Contact the Scholar office in Room 215 of the Law Library, if you have any questions.

SIXTH ANNUAL KOMEN SAN ANTONIO RACE FOR THE CURE

On Saturday morning, April 5, thousand of supporters will gather at the Alamodome for the Sixth Annual Komen San Antonio Race for the Cure. The annual event is a co-ed 5k Run/Walk and a 1-mile family fun walk to raise awareness and funding to benefit the national Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation and its San Antonio affiliate.

St. Mary's is supporting this important cause by organizing a team of runners and walkers to enter the event. Awards will be presented immediately following the Race to the largest team, the top fund-raising team, and the largest non-corporate team.

If you are interested in joining St. Mary's Law School team, or in sponsoring someone on St. Mary's team, please call Gloria Valenzuela at ext. 3525 or come by the Law Journal office located in the library, room 223 for the entry form. Each individual must turn in a SIGNED registration form and their fee ($18 per adult and $15 per child (14 and under)). The deadline for receiving team applications is Monday, March 10.

Thanks again for "teaming up" with us.

PEOPLE'S LAW SCHOOL

The ninth annual People's Law School will be held at St. Mary's on Saturday, April 5, 2003 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The People's Law School is a free public seminar that features local attorneys who are experts in their field. This year's agenda includes presentations in the following areas: consumer law, family law, employment law, wills and probate, mediation, criminal procedure, landlord-tenant, and small claims.

Volunteers are needed for this event, which is co-sponsored by the San Antonio Bar Foundation and Sister Grace's Campus Ministry. Assistance is needed for set up on Friday afternoon, April 4, registration on Saturday morning April 5th, and clean up early Saturday afternoon. Volunteers are welcome for any or all of these times! Sign up with Mary Alfaro in the Career Services Office in the Library or call Bob Kraemer at 436-3011 ext. 1577.

FACULTY KUDOS

Jeffrey F. Addicott, Assistant Professor of Law, has published Storm Clouds on the Horizon of Darwinism: Teaching the Anthropic Principle and Intelligent Design in Public Schools, in Volume 63, Number 6, Ohio State Law Journal. The law review article addresses the future legal ramifications that the fledgling intelligent design movement and the scientific concept known as the Anthropic Principle will have on the teaching of Darwinian evolution in the public schools. Both ideas are associated with the concept that an "unnamed" intelligent designer is responsible for the creation and sustainment of life. After covering all sides in the debate, the article argues that the Supreme Court will ultimately allow, for instance, school boards to incorporate intelligent design in the science curriculum.

EXAMSOFT

ExamSoft has just posted a MANDATORY Service Pack that should be installed prior to taking any additional exams. The Service Pack is available at the link provided below and will only take a few minutes to download, even on a slow dial-up connection. Among the functionality enhancements included are:

If you have any questions, please contact any PMBR Rep. If you need to know your balance, please contact PMBR at 1-800-523-0777.

ST. MARY'S LAW JOURNAL
ATTENTION FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

All first-year law students are encouraged to apply to be staff writers for the St. Mary's Law Journal. There are many benefits to being a staff writer, including the chance to publish a comment in the Journal, which is one of the country's top ten law reviews most frequently cited by state and federal courts.

For more information on the application process, the St. Mary's Law Journal invites all first-year law students to an informational dinner on Tuesday, April 15, 2003 at 4:30 p.m. in the Alumni Room. Please join us for an informal discussion on the benefits of being a Journal staff writer and what the application process entails.

In addition, on Tuesday, April 22, 2003 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., the Journal will have an Open House. Please stop by the Journal office for refreshments and an office tour. Representatives from the Journal will be there to answer any questions you may have concerning Journal membership.

Please join us to consider this rewarding endeavor.

THE SCHOLAR: ST. MARY'S LAW REVIEW ON MINORITY ISSUES

The Scholar: St. Mary's Law Review on Minority Issues is currently recruiting Staff Writers for the 2003-2004 school year. Current 1Ls and 2Ls are eligible for the positions. Application packets are now available. Applications will be distributed during the turn-in times for the 1L briefs, at tables in the Law Classroom Building, and at any time in The Scholar office (Law Library, Room 215). Application packets are due by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 4.

There will be an informational meeting on Monday, March 31 at 4:00 p.m. in the Atrium of the Law Administration Building. Current and former law review Editors and Staff Writers will be present to answer questions. Professor Rey Valencia will speak briefly on the benefits of law review membership. All students are welcome for food and drinks.

OFFICE OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Endowed Scholarships: Applications may be obtained by requesting them at nluna@stmarytx.edu or at the Office of Financial Assistance. Deadline for the applications is 5:00 p.m., Monday, April 7. We recommend that you review the list of Endowed Scholarships on the St. Mary's School of Law website (law.stmarytx.edu, under the "admissions" section). If you find that you fit the criteria for one or more of those scholarships, it would be to your benefit to address in detail how you meet the criteria and include it in the narrative. For instance, there is one scholarship that is awarded to a student who is from a single parent family, whose parent works or worked in the legal community. The detailed information, such as the name of the parent, the description of the type of employment and place of employment would be appropriate to list on the narrative attached to the application. If you feel that you meet that or some other criteria and you have already turned in your application, you are still able to turn in the narrative statement so that we can attach it to your application.

FAFSA Reminder: If you plan on receiving financial assistance for this coming year, you should have already completed your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the 2003-2004 year. If not, please submit online immediately. The website is www.fafsa.ed.gov.

Summer Financial Assistance: Budgets for summers sessions as well as the Innsbruck program are now available in our office. In order to receive financial assistance for the summer, the 2003-2004 FAFSA must be completed as well as The Loan Information Form, which is now available in our office. DO NOT TURN IN UNTIL YOU HAVE REGISTERED FOR YOUR SUMMER COURSES. The form is due April 16 and allows for sufficient time to make any course changes you might need. Please note that you must be enrolled for a minimum of 2 hours in either Summer I or Summer II sessions to be considered eligible for financial assistance.

If you are planning to attend another institution during Summer 2003, and want to be considered for financial assistance, you must complete a Student Consortium Agreement Form. This form is available at the Law School Office of Financial Assistance. Any grade earned while attending another institution must appear on your academic transcript in order to avoid jeopardizing future loan disbursements.

Due to recent changes in federal regulations, disbursement of the Stafford Loans will be different for those students who will only be attending one summer session, whether here at St. Mary's, at another institution, or any study abroad program. Half of the disbursement will come at the start of the summer session with the remaining half coming mid-way through the session. If this disbursement schedule is inconvenient, an Alternative Loan will allow one disbursement for the one summer session. For that reason you may want to process the Alternative Loan instead of the Stafford Loan. The Alternative Loan also allows us to request the funds a little earlier for those students who will be participating in a study abroad program. If however, you plan to attend two summer sessions, then half of the funding will come at the beginning of the first summer session and the remaining half at the beginning of the second summer session.

PHI DELTA PHI

There are a lot of games as well as the Easter Egg Hunt scheduled and we need volunteers to join in the Fun! We also need help with stuffing the eggs on April 14, at 3:30 p.m. A sign-up sheet is on the Phi Delta Phi Board in the Law Classroom Building. If you have

NEED A FUN BREAK BEFORE FINALS HIT... JOIN US FOR A Diversity Festival at the Law School Courtyard
Tuesday April 1, from 11:00 a.m. -1:00 p.m.
(rain location: Alumni Room)

We'll CELEBRATE!! the gains made nation-wide in creating a more diverse student body. The event is organized to coincide with oral arguments for the two University of Michigan affirmative action cases the U.S. Supreme Court will hear addressing whether 1) creating a diverse student body is a compelling government interest and 2) whether race can be used as a factor for admissions. Bringing students of different backgrounds together allows students to learn from people's different experiences, backgrounds and perspectives. With this in mind, we have invited various organizations who represent minorities and who strive to bring forth different perspectives about society's concerns.

Come have a good FREE meal and listen to music by a local DJ as you visit with representatives from these organizations! Sponsored by St. Mary's Law Students for Diversity in Higher Education, HLSA, SBA and BALSA. For more information or to help out contact Griselda Ponce at 325-7090 or Griselda@justice.com.

During the recent events of the St. Mary's University President's Peace Commission, Professors Ana Novoa and Lee Teran were presented with the Alice Franzke Feminist Award. The St. Mary's Women's Caucus established the award in 1990 to honor members of the University community who promote peace, empowerment, cooperation, equality, and respect of all persons. The award commemorates the work of the late Dr. Franzke, a sociology professor at St. Mary's from 1982 to 1989, in the field of civil rights and civil involvement.

SAYLA ESTATE PLANNING SCHOLARSHIP

SAYLA has established a scholarship fund which will provide an $2,000 stipend for the Fall 2003 semester. The purpose of the San Antonio Young Lawyers Association Estate Planning, Probate & Guardianship Scholarship is to encourage students having an interest in advanced study in these areas of the law to pursue that interest. The scholarship is designed to provide the funds necessary to cover the costs of both tuition and study materials associated with enrollment in an advanced level course.

Applicants must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75 and must have completed Wills & Estates and Trusts. Additionally, applicants must be registered for an advanced study course dealing with estate planning, probate, guardianship, elder law, or estate tax in the semester for which the scholarship will be awarded. Financial need will be considered, but it will not be the deciding factor.

Applications may be obtained from Ms. Caroline Buckley in the Raba Building and should be returned to her or Prof. Beyer by April 30, 2003. The recipient will be notified in May 2003. For more information, contact Prof. Beyer in Raba 280.

OFFICE OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

FAFSA Reminder: If you plan on receiving financial assistance for this coming year, you should have already completed your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the 2003-2004 year. If not, please submit online immediately. The website is www.fafsa.ed.gov.

Summer Financial Assistance: Budgets for summers sessions as well as the Innsbruck program are now available in our office. In order to receive financial assistance for the summer, the 2003-2004 FAFSA must be completed as well as The Loan Information Form, which is now available in our office. DO NOT TURN IN UNTIL YOU HAVE REGISTERED FOR YOUR SUMMER COURSES. The form is due April 16 and allows for sufficient time to make any course changes you might need. Please note that you must be enrolled for a minimum of 2 hours in either Summer I or Summer II sessions to be considered eligible for financial assistance.

If you are planning to attend another institution during Summer 2003, and want to be considered for financial assistance, you must complete a Student Consortium Agreement Form. This form is available at the Law School Office of Financial Assistance. Any grade earned while attending another institution must appear on your academic transcript in order to avoid jeopardizing future loan disbursements.

Due to recent changes in federal regulations, disbursement of the Stafford Loans will be different for those students who will only be attending one summer session, whether here at St. Mary's, at another institution, or any study abroad program. Half of the disbursement will come at the start of the summer session with the remaining half coming mid-way through the session. If this disbursement schedule is inconvenient, an Alternative Loan will allow one disbursement for the one summer session. For that reason you may want to process the Alternative Loan instead of the Stafford Loan. The Alternative Loan also allows us to request the funds a little earlier for those students who will be participating in a study abroad program. If however, you plan to attend two summer sessions, then half of the funding will come at the beginning of the first summer session and the remaining half at the beginning of the second summer session.

PHI DELTA PHI

Easter Extravaganza: Volunteers are needed on April 15, from 3:45 - 6:30 p.m. for Campus Ministry's Annual Easter Extravaganza 2003. It is a wonderful opportunity to have fun and give back to the community. There are a lot of games as well as the Easter Egg Hunt scheduled and we need volunteers to join in the Fun! We also need help with stuffing the eggs on April 14, at 3:30 p.m. A sign-up sheet is on the Phi Delta Phi Board in the Law Classroom Building. If you have any questions please contact Candace Kunz-Freed (Box 109) or Sister Grace. The Annual Spring Mixer will be on April 10. Look for the posted time and location on the Phi Delta Phi Board.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Vote for the 2003-2004 WLA Board: Vote for next year's Board on Monday, April 14, from 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. in the Law Classroom Building. The 2003-2004 WLA Board will be announced at the End of the Year Party.

The Christian Legal Society will meet on Tuesday, April 15, at 11:30 in the Alumni Room of the Law Library. This is our last meeting, so don't miss a chance to relax with other Christian law students before the stresses of finals hit. Lunch will be provided.

WRITING COMPETITIONS, FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Unless otherwise noted, copies of detailed information regarding these writing competitions, fellowships and scholarships are available from Ms. Lucille Wideman, Room 105 of the Law Administration Building.

Judge Lucius Bunton Memorial Law Scholarship: This scholarship is awarded through the Permian Basin Area Foundation for Fall 2003. Preference will be given to students from 23 Texas counties listed in the information regarding the scholarship. Completed applications must be postmarked no later than May 30, 2003.
